

Painting Autumn Trees in Watercolor at Callaway Gardens

Workshop: Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, GA
Saturday and Sunday November 6 & 7 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. each day

Come visit Callaway Gardens and paint the splendor of the autumn colors.

This workshop includes two days of painting from direct observation of nature. We will focus on appreciating and learning to capture the landscape in watercolor during the fall season. Weather permitting, we'll be outdoors. In case of rain, we'll paint indoors.

Pat Fiorello, is a professional artist, popular instructor and Signature member of the Georgia Watercolor Society known for her vibrant paintings inspired by nature. Workshop topics include how to paint trees and foliage, simplify your composition while painting on location and mix colors to capture the fall landscape. Pat offers a variety of teaching approaches including demonstrations, instruction on technique and composition, critique and individual coaching while students paint on location. If you have never taken a painting workshop before, this weekend workshop is a fun and easy way to get started. All levels of painters welcome. Demonstrations will be in watercolor, however artists are welcome to use the medium of their choice.

Fee: $225 for Saturday and Sunday. Students have option to participate on Saturday only. Fee for one day is $125.
